

Lemon Tree (Etz Limon)

(Israel, 106 minutes)

Director: Eran Riklis

Synopsis

Salma, a Palestinian widow - living there for decades - , has to stand up against her new neighbor, the Israeli Defense Minister, when he moves into his new house opposite her lemon grove, on the green line border between Israel and the West Bank. The Israeli security forces are quick to declare that Salma's trees pose a threat to the Ministers safety and issue orders to uproot them. Together with Ziad Daud, a young Palestinian lawyer, Salma goes all the way to the Israeli Supreme Court to try and save her trees. Her struggle raises the interest of Mira Navon, the Defense minister's wife, trapped in her new home and in an unhappy life. Despite their differences and the borders between them the two women develop an invisible bond, while forbidden ties grow stronger between Salma and Ziad. Salma's legal and personal journey lead her deep into the complex, dark and sometimes funny chaos of the ongoing struggle in the Middle East, in which all players find themselves alone in their struggle to survive.

Classroom Exercises

For Salma, the lemon trees were more than just trees, they held memories of her father and her husband. Think of one of your personal possessions. It could be a necklace, a stuffed animal, a picture. Write about this object and its significance? How does it make you feel? How would you feel if someone tried to take it away from you?

Salma, Mira and Ziad all are dealing with the absence or loss of someone they love. Mira, Salma, and Ziad are all far away from their children. Think about a family member you are far away from or have lost. How did you deal with that loss, and how did it make you stronger?

- Why do you think the writer of the film chose to have a female as the main character, instead of a male?
